

FUND FINANCE FRIDAY

Transition Update

As some of you may have heard by now, I have announced my intention to join one of my great friends and longtime clients in a fund finance entrepreneurial venture on the business side later this year. While I would have liked to be able to tell everyone in person, the word will inevitably spread faster than I can connect with people. I'm of course excited to take on this challenge, which rests on our conviction that the fund finance industry is still in its early innings and has an incredibly bright and dynamic future growth profile. Details of the new endeavor will be made available at the appropriate time in the future.

In the interim, I remain full time with the outstanding fund finance team at Cadwalader. Our team here is nearly 70 dedicated fund finance lawyers deep and, in my undoubtedly biased opinion, the absolute best in the business. Under the leadership of Partners Brian Foster, Tim Hicks, Sam Hutchinson, Wes Misson, Trent Lindsay, Kurt Oosterhouse, Jeff Nagle, Nathan Parker and Chad Stackhouse, I am incredibly confident in our ability to service our clients. I am here to ensure that my eventual transition is non-impactful for our clients and matters, and if I can do anything to be helpful or answer questions, I'm on the Cadwalader desk and open for business.
