Maples Group Publishes Global Market Reviews in the Latest Edition of Its FUNDED Newsletter

July 1, 2022 | Issue No. 182

Maples Group recently released its June 2022 edition of FUNDED: An Industry Newsletter for the Global Fund Finance Market, which features a series of global market reviews, including specific reviews of the fund finance markets in the United States, Europe and Asia. One of the global market trends highlighted is the steady growth of ESG transactions over recent years and why to expect that growth to continue throughout 2022. The newsletter also featured other articles, including a thoughtful overview of Irish Collective Asset-Management Vehicles (i.e., ICAVs) and another that provides practical takeaways on the Jersey Limited Partnership – 2022 Amendments from a lender’s perspective.
