

FUND FINANCE FRIDAY

13th Annual Global Fund Finance Symposium

January 5, 2024

The Fund Finance Association's annual symposiums bring together investors, fund managers, bankers and lawyers for education and networking within the fund finance market. The 13th Annual Global Fund Finance Symposium will take place February 26-29, 2024 in Miami Beach.

The FFA has announced esteemed political scientist Ian Bremmer as the keynote speaker for this year. Ian is recognized for his exceptional expertise in navigating the complexities of global affairs, offering invaluable insights to business leaders and policymakers.

As the President and Founder of Eurasia Group, the foremost political risk research and consulting firm globally, Ian brings a wealth of knowledge and understanding of the intricate dynamics shaping our world today. His dedication extends to GZERO Media, a platform committed to delivering intelligent and captivating coverage of international affairs.

Authoring eleven influential books, including New York Times bestsellers such as "Us vs Them: The Failure of Globalism" and "The Power of Crisis: How Three Threats—and Our Response—Will Change the World," Ian's profound insights into the evolving global landscape have captivated audiences worldwide.

The FFA is looking forward to having you join them for Ian's Keynote address as he shares his unparalleled expertise, offering a unique perspective on the current state of the world and its implications for various sectors.

Learn more and see the agenda here.