

Corporate Counsel Honors Leah Edelboim With a 2024 Women, Influence and Power in Law Award

August 2, 2024

Cadwalader fund finance partner Leah Edelboim has been named a winner in the “Law Firm Thought Leadership” category of Corporate Counsel’s 2024 Women, Influence and Power in Law Awards.

Corporate Counsel, an American Lawyer publication, produces the annual awards to “honor in-house and law firm women leaders and allies who have demonstrated a commitment to advancing the empowerment of women in law.”

Leah was recognized for her leading work in the fund finance industry; her mentorship of young lawyers, including her work to advance women in the profession; and for her role as a leading contributor to Cadwalader’s Fund Finance Friday, the industry’s foremost publication. Winners will be honored at the 2024 Women, Influence & Power in Law Conference in Chicago on September 24.

Read the full list here.