Kudos to Our Financial Services Group

May 15, 2020 | Issue No. 77

A tip of the cap to our colleagues in the firm's Financial Services Group, which was named the 2020 International Financial Law Review (IFLR) Americas Financial Services Regulatory Team of the Year. This marks the second time in six years that Cadwalader has been named the IFLR Financial Services Regulatory Team of the Year. Earlier this year, the group received a Law360 Practice Group of the Year award in the Banking category.

We work with our FS Group lawyers regularly and agree wholeheartedly with IFLR: this team really is best-in-class. Congratulations!
